

Effectively Onboarding Your New Hires

A BlackFin Group Training Program

Training, the critical, and indispensable task your business needs to thrive in today's marketplace. It affects the overall performance and effectiveness of an organization, builds new employee skills, sharpens existing ones, enhances productivity, and increases employee retention.

Delivered by credentialed ATD Master Trainers, training sessions with the BlackFin Group are designed to achieve exactly these things and unleashing the full potential of your organization.

Reduce turnover costs by improving your 'On Boarding' strategy...

According to Gallup, 88% of organizations don't onboard well, and studies show effective onboarding is key to employee retention and proficiency. Employee turnover is expensive - 16% of average annual salary. This training offers a complete paradigm shift for how you onboard and will equip you with the tools to dramatically increase the effectiveness of your onboarding, potentially putting you in that rare 12% of organizations Gallup responders that do a great job of onboarding!
